

Key message if you write your own letter to the editor:

- If you've been disenrolled from SoonerCare, apply again if you think you're eligible, or seek coverage through the federal Marketplace or your employer.
- If you're still enrolled in SoonerCare, visit MySoonerCare.org to keep your application up to date.
- If you're unsure what your health insurance options are, visit MyOKPlan.org.

Feel free to use or adapt text from the three sample letters below.

#

Dear Editor,

Many Oklahomans who have had health insurance through SoonerCare need to take action to keep that coverage. It's time to get covered and stay covered.

The Oklahoma Health Care Authority has been communicating with members to determine if they still qualify for coverage. Here are three key points to consider:

- If you're still enrolled in SoonerCare, visit MySoonerCare.org to keep your application up to date.
- If you've been disenrolled from SoonerCare, apply again if you think you're eligible, or seek coverage through the federal Marketplace or your employer.
- If you're unsure what your health insurance options are, visit MyOKPlan.org to speak with a healthcare navigator.

Many of our friends and neighbors are just one medical emergency away from economic disaster. As a resident who is concerned about the health and well-being of our community, I want to encourage everyone to help spread the word and share other options so people can access the health insurance they need.

[Your Name]

[Your City, State]

Dear Editor,

Health insurance provides financial protection for unexpected medical expenses and ensures timely access to visit a doctor or refill a prescription.

Many Oklahomans covered by SoonerCare need to take action to make sure they still qualify for this important health insurance. The Oklahoma Health Care Authority has been communicating with SoonerCare members to determine if they still qualify for coverage. Here are three key points to consider:

- If you're still enrolled in SoonerCare, visit MySoonerCare.org to keep your application up to date.
- If you've been disenrolled from SoonerCare, apply again if you think you're eligible, or seek coverage through the federal Marketplace or your employer.
- If you're unsure what your health insurance options are, visit MyOKPlan.org to speak with a healthcare navigator.

Health care is too important to put off. It's a crucial step toward safeguarding the health and peace of mind for you and your family. It's time to get covered and stay covered.

[Your Name]

[Your City, State]

Dear Editor,

Health insurance is a lifeline for families, offering peace of mind and financial security. It safeguards against unexpected medical costs and helps keep our families and communities safe and healthy.

Many Oklahomans covered by SoonerCare during the pandemic must now take action to make sure they still qualify for health insurance through SoonerCare.

The Oklahoma Health Care Authority has been communicating with SoonerCare members to determine if they still qualify for coverage. Here are three key points to consider:

- If you're still enrolled in SoonerCare, visit MySoonerCare.org to keep your application up to date.
- If you've been disenrolled from SoonerCare, apply again if you think you're eligible, or seek coverage through the federal Marketplace or your employer.
- If you're unsure what your health insurance options are, visit MyOKPlan.org to speak with a healthcare navigator.

Prioritize your family's health and future today by making sure that you can get covered and stay covered.

[Your Name]

[Your City, State]

#

●